Vietnam

From the mountainous north's forested peaks and karst-studded seascapes of Halong Bay, to the tropical south's rice paddies and golden-sand beaches, Vietnam presents a vibrant land of diversity that never fails to charm. With its dramatically beautiful yet contrasting landscapes, diverse cultures and ethnicities, engaging experiences await at every turn.

In the north, the thousand-year-old capital, Hanoi, skillfully balances rapid modernisation with ancient pagodas, timeless cultural traditions and French colonial-era remnants that extend to elegant villas and tree-lined boulevards.

Vietnam's beautiful central coast region is home to a duo of captivating riverside cities boasting UNESCO World Heritage Site status. Both Hoi An, a former Silk Road trading port and one of Southeast Asia's oldest towns and Hue, a former Imperial Capital and seat of the Nguyen Emperor dynasty, come laden with an extraordinary wealth of historical and cultural treasures.

In the sultry south, Ho Chi Minh City presents Vietnam's most dynamic, modern and cosmopolitan destination; a pulsating metropolis where, amongst the glittering high-rises, the former Saigon's past is evident in grand architectural landmarks and wartime relics.

Further westwards from the city buzz lies one of Vietnam's loveliest regions, the Mekong Delta; a lush, intensely cultivated area dominated by the mighty Mekong River and its network of canals and tributaries.

Au Co Halong Bay cruise

The fully refurbished Au Co is one of the most spacious ships cruising the Gulf of Tonkin, complete with exclusive gifts and events for Emerald Cruises guests. Unlike other cruise operators there's no need to change ships during your cruise, the Au Co itinerary explores deeper into the tranquil areas of Halong Bay, making the most of your three days exploring this UNESCO World Heritage-listed wonder.

Cambodia

Cambodia is best known for the magnificent Angkor Archaeological Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in Siem Reap, containing hundreds of temples and monuments — remnants of an ancient Khmer civilisation. Angkor Wat, a stupendous, 12th century temple complex, is ranked as the world's largest religious site and one of its greatest ancient wonders.

There is however, so much more to this welcoming country, including diverse landscapes — from remote tropical islands and emerald jungles to pepper plantations and the Mekong River, coursing its way through the length of the kingdom.

Along the legendary Mekong, you can discover authentic Khmer riverine life and relatively unknown parts, but also key destinations, including the capital, Phnom Penh.

A former royal kingdom seat and French protectorate, Phnom Penh presents a vibrant city modernising at light speed. Once dubbed the 'Pearl of Asia', this riverside capital nevertheless, is still regarded as one of Indochina's loveliest colonial-era cities. Rich in history, fascinating cultural attractions and historical sites run from sobering legacies of the nation's turbulent past to the exquisite Royal Palace and ornate Buddhist temples.

Siem Reap itself boasts more than captivating archaeological treasures. This northern provincial town has developed as a lively tourist destination, renowned for its world-class dining and spas, and flourishing arts and culture scene. Beyond, abundant natural attractions extend to Tonlé Sap, Southeast Asia's largest freshwater lake, home to floating villages and waterbird reserves.

Defined by history, Cambodians look ahead to the future whilst maintaining their past traditions, customs, and heritage. As you explore the country, you'll surely appreciate their resilience and warm hospitality.

Seasonal Guide

Southeast Asia Winter Sun December–February

Vietnam and Cambodia are superb destinations to visit between December and February to appreciate the abundant sunshine. Cambodia doesn't have an official winter month per se, although December and January are the coolest months, with average highs of 28°C.

Vietnam is generally cooler, although agreeable. December through to February are the coolest months, with an average high in Hanoi of 20°C and warmer temperatures in the south, with highs of 27°C in Ho Chi Minh City. This is a popular time of the year to visit Southeast Asia, as generally, you can explore the historic landmarks and cultural wonders in relative comfort.

Southeast Asia Spring March–May

In April and May, regional temperatures begin to rise. Hot and dry, travelling across Cambodia and Vietnam during this time, expect clear blue skies and humid days, with little to no rainfall up until mid-May. While southern Vietnam enjoys year-round tropical climates, May showers provide respite from the midday heat.

In Cambodia, temperatures begin to ascend, suiting those who prefer warmer climates, with gentle river breezes providing natural respite from the midday heat.

Green Season June–September

The arrival of June brings the rains and beginning of the ‘green season.’ Most days, you’ll likely experience short bursts of rain either early in the morning or mid-afternoon. Travelling at this time brings numerous advantages, most strikingly evidenced in the sheer beauty and lushness of the landscape.

This region bursts into vibrancy as colourful flowers bloom, rice paddies turn a vivid green, and tropical rainforests come alive. Generally, the green season is often less travelled, meaning fewer crowds across Southeast Asia’s most celebrated landmarks.

It’s during this period that our unique 10-Day cruise itinerary (pay for only 8 days) operates from August to September. Refer to pages 44-47 for details.

Southeast Asia Autumn October–November

For much of Vietnam, October represents the conclusion of the green season, with temperatures dropping to an average of 26°C. However, in Central Vietnam (Hue and Hoi An), the rains begin here first during this time. Generally, for these months, the climate promises to be ideal for visiting Hanoi and Halong Bay, in northern Vietnam. Cambodia’s rain continues into October, with slightly higher temperatures than its neighbour, with averages of 27°C.

Representing the transition from the green to dry season for much of the region, expect mainly clear skies, explorations in relative comfort and fewer crowds. The Mekong Delta is now bursting with life and basking in sunshine, whilst Cambodia’s climate isn’t as humid as in months prior.

Welcome to Southeast Asia

With its collection of unique but equally captivating countries, Southeast Asia welcomes with astoundingly beautiful landscapes, abundant historic treasures, vibrant cities, wondrous biodiversity and diverse cultures and traditions. Bookended between the Indian and Pacific oceans, this mesmerising region of fascinating contrasts offers you so much to see, do and experience wherever you travel.

Hanoi

Vietnam's capital, Hanoi, is one of Asia's prettiest cities, graced with scenic parks and lakes, ancient quarters, faded Indochina architecture and tree-lined boulevards. Nestled along the Red River for over a millennia, despite increased modernisation, enchanting Hanoi still retains a unique cultural heritage and identity, inherent northern traditions and legacies of momentous history.

Halong Bay

Also in Vietnam's north, World Heritage-listed Halong Bay ranks amongst Asia's most jaw-dropping natural wonders, where countless limestone islands and islets rise from emerald-hued waters. A two night cruise through this ethereal 'Bay of Descending Dragons' is the best way to explore the karst-studded seascape and its mythical grottoes and hidden lagoons.

Ho Chi Minh City

In the tropical south, Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon) is Vietnam's largest, most cosmopolitan and dynamic city. Rapidly developing as a modern metropolis with a soaring skyline, its storied history, extending to wartime relics and French colonial landmarks, as well as distinct Saigonesque character, are still evident.

Siem Reap

In Cambodia's northwest, Siem Reap is your gateway to Angkor Archaeological Park, a magnificent UNESCO World Heritage-listed complex containing countless ancient temples and monument remnants — including iconic Angkor Wat. This lively town is also renowned as Cambodia's foremost arts and culture hub, with a thriving dining and spa scene.

Laos

Relatively untouched by mainstream tourism due to decades of isolation and landlocked seclusion, Laos is one of Southeast Asia's hidden gems. A fabled 'Kingdom of a Million Elephants,' Laos enchants visitors with its unspoiled nature, Asian spirituality, historic treasures and authentic cultural experiences.

A deeply spiritual nation, Buddhism permeates every facet of Laotian life, from sacred Buddhist rituals to omnipresent gilded temples, while its rich history is evident in a legacy of well-preserved historical sites and architectural wonders — several of which are protected under UNESCO World Heritage status. Laos also presents a land of untamed natural beauty, characterised by mist-shrouded mountains and stunning interiors brimming with biodiversity, highland waterfalls and verdant forests. Meandering through the entire length of Laos, it is the timeless Mekong River, however, that truly beguiles, setting the rhythm for everyday life in pristine river valleys that have witnessed relatively little change over the years.

Besides remote local communities, some of the nation's most important and compelling destinations flank the Upper Mekong's tranquil shores. Former royal capital, Luang Prabang emanates an almost ethereal ambiance and is considered the heart of Laotian culture and spirituality, enchanting with its well-preserved Old Town.

Further south, Southeast Asia's smallest capital, Vientiane, still exudes a laid-back ambiance and 'Old-World' charm; the faded colonial architecture a reminder of its former role as a French Indochina trading post. Located in-between these gems amid the interior, the quaint riverside town of Vang Vieng is also noteworthy for its dramatic limestone karst and cave scenery.

Travelling through Laos, expect a more relaxed way of life that moves along at a delightfully unhurried pace and a warm welcome from the gentle Lao people.

Japan

Imbued with a unique culture, unmistakable identity and exquisite beauty, Japan is an enthralling experience in every sense. From centuries-old fishing villages and majestic feudal castles to neon-lit skylines and ultra-modern innovations, Japan reveals a land of breathtaking contrasts, where the past, present and future effortlessly collide.

Well-preserved cultural heritage and deeply-rooted traditions across this 'Land of the Rising Sun' provide countless opportunities to connect with the nation's compelling past, while its frenetic megacities and next-gen technologies immerse you in an exhilarating, futuristic world.

Comprised of a stunning archipelago in Northeast Asia, Japan's centrally-positioned Honshu Island is home to much of the country's main cities and important attractions, welcoming with an endearing warmth.

Japan's political centre for centuries, Tokyo today presents a fast-paced megacity ranked as the planet's most populated. Amid this mesmerising capital, the world's tallest tower and busiest pedestrian crossing rubs shoulders with traditional icons and ancient Shinto shrines. Heading southwest, mountainous Hakone is popular for its hot springs and spectacular vistas of Mount Fuji, an active volcano and national symbol best appreciated on a scenic lake cruise.

As Japan's imperial capital for over a millennia, Kyoto boasts the nation's highest concentration of cultural and architectural treasures. Surrounded by rural heartlands, this well-preserved ancient city delivers the quintessential face of old Japan and some of its most authentic cultural experiences. Nearby Nara makes an enthralling day trip for its significant historical assets.

Another former imperial capital, Osaka dazzles with a buzzing street life and diverse attractions, but renowned as 'the nation's kitchen' and Japan's culinary mecca, food is the biggest drawcard in this vibrant metropolis. Further westwards on Honshu, Hiroshima, eternally synonymous for its tragic wartime history and off-shore, the small, pretty island of Miyajima are additional, must-see destinations.

If You accept the alternative Journey or Itinerary (as applicable) within 7 days of being notified by Us and:

- (a) the original Journey Price exceeds the alternative Journey Price, then We will refund You the difference; or
- (b) the alternative Journey Price exceeds the original Journey Price, then You must pay us the difference.
- If You do not accept the alternative Journey or Itinerary (as applicable) within 7 days of being notified by Us, We will cancel Your Journey and refund You the Journey Price that You paid directly to Us.

- 7.6 To the extent permitted by law and subject to any rights you may have under the Australian Consumer Law, all express or implied warranties, guarantees, representations, or terms are expressly excluded. - (b) to a standard which We consider will meet the reasonable expectations of the Journey participants.
- 8.5 If We cancel Your Journey or make any changes to Your Journey or Itinerary (including changes to the planned departure date, change to the mode of transport or provision of onshore instead of onboard accommodation) as a result of a Force Majeure Event:

 - Collapsible walkers may be taken onto tender vessels for transfer to shore for the included touring. Walkers are however unable to be taken on the Zodiacs at any time due to space restrictions. All walkers must be stored in Your suite as there is no additional storage space on board.
 - Embarking and disembarking the tenders, Zodiacs, kayaks and submersible are via a mud room/change room with steps leading to a marina platform and requires the ability to step into and out of these vessels unaided.
 - (d) Facilities: It is important to note that:
