SMALL GROUP DISCOVERY

Small Group Discovery tours are designed for travellers who crave the intimacy of smaller groups but still want experiences in epic proportions. With an average of just 15–18 guests in Europe (and never more than 24 in other destinations), these tours create space for more freedom, flexibility, and access. The result? More room to roam, more time to connect, and more stories to share. Travelling in smaller groups means doors open to places and moments not possible for larger tours. Enjoy private wine tastings in family-run estates, hands-on cooking classes, or an after-hours museum visit where the art feels like it's speaking just to you. It was here, in this reverie hamlet, where Swiss expatriate Beni Ammeter opened a general store in 1985. In those days, when foreign travellers made their way to Ahuano and needed a place to stay, they were inevitably directed to La Casa del Suizo. Happy to have visitors from afar, Beni warmly welcomed them into his home. Eventually, his residence became so popular that he constructed a few cabins to better accommodate the steady flow of travellers. The Indigenous guides share an impressive insight and knowledge of local flora and fauna, in addition to the medicinal uses of many plants. Return to the lodge for lunch followed by your choice of activity. Later, enjoy dinner at the resort featuring fresh dishes with Ecuadorian influences. (B,L,D)

LIGHTHOUSE PROJECT℠

LIGHTING THE PATH TO A BETTER TOMORROW

Since our beginning, we at Globus have illuminated the world's most captivating places and people – inviting travellers like you to experience their beauty, intrigue and wonder. Along the way, we've helped uncover ancient traditions by connecting with locals dedicated to preserving them; explore historic sites while giving back to the communities that protect them; and move beyond guidebooks to gain a deeper understanding of our diverse world.

The Lighthouse Project is our shared commitment to tread lightly and give generously for the greater good of the planet. We invite you to join us in supporting causes that promote a more sustainable future and a brighter tomorrow.
